Chicago-based RE/MAX Premier Properties announced its outstanding agents for the month of October: Cynthia Bauer, Izabela Machnicki and Mike Kravitz.

Bauer, who first came to RE/MAX in 2004, made

$4,675,000 in sales. She partnered with former Sotheby's managing broker Janice Corley earlier this year to open RE/MAX Premier Properties in Chicago's Gold Coast neighborhood. In addition to being its president broker and owner, Bauer is also one of RE/MAX Premier Properties' top selling agents.

RE/MAX newcomer Machnicki sold a property listed at $5.5 million last month. She speaks both English and Polish and lives at the exquisite 57 E. Delaware Place in Gold Coast.

Kravitz has been licensed since 1995 and had five active listings in October. Educated at the University of Texas, Kravitz came to real estate from the business world, where he launched several successful enterprises. His hobbies are basketball, fitness and golf.
